In the reference 2nd read above, Sri M.N. Rao, ASI 889, Special Protection Force, AP Foods, in his representation, has stated that he was handed over a charge alleging that he had misbehaved with the Inspector, Special Protection Force, on 29-01-2005. The Assistant Commandant was appointed as an enquiry officer in the mater. In the enquiry, some witnesses were examined and even though they had not supported the charge, still the charge was held proved. The Enquiry Officer nowhere mentioned that Sri M.N. Rao, ASI, 889 Special Protection Force, misbehaved with the Inspector and stated that he had been pleading for grant of C.L. Even the complainant officer, i.e., Inspector, had stated that when he had refused to grant the CL, Sri M.N. Rao, had argued with him. Thus all the evidence on record would show that there has been no misbehavior on the part of him. But without considering the representation made to the Deputy Inspector General, Special Protection Force, the Deputy Inspector General, Special Protection Force, has imposed the punishment of PPI for 1 year with effect. Aggrieved by that order, he preferred an appeal to the Director General, Special Protection Force, and the Director General, Special Protection Force, has also rejected his plea. Thus, Sri M.N. Rao, ASI, 889 has filed the revision petition before the Government for setting aside the punishment of PPI of one increment for one year with effect on future increments and pension imposed by the Deputy Inspector General, Special Protection Force vide proceedings first read above.

2. Government after careful examination hereby modify the punishment of PPI for one year with effect on future increments and pension awarded to Sri M.N. Rao, ASI-889, Special Protection Force now working in A.P. Foods in Deputy Inspector General, Special Protection Force, Hyderabad, proceedings 1st read above, to that of “withholding of one increment without cumulative effect”.

3. The Director General, Special Protection Force, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, is requested to take further necessary action accordingly and intimate the same to the individual under proper acknowledgment.
